

EXTENSION

1890 LAND-GRANT INSTITUTION

Garden Volunteers Needed

Learn gardening while helping the community

Come help in the Seed to Bloom Garden!

- No experience needed
- Come whenever you can—don't have to come every time
- Help with plant care and learn techniques
- Learn when to harvest vegetables and help encourage healthy lifestyles
- Help distribute produce to campus community
- Extra produce will be donated to The Foodbank, Inc., a member of Feeding America
- Volunteers will be invited for a harvest celebration this fall

Open to students, staff, and faculty—

Date: Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays
starting July 1

(come whenever you can—don't have to come every time)

Time: 9-11 a.m.

Location: Seed to Bloom Garden
By the Water Tower on the Central State Research Farm
(Across US 42 from campus)

Contact: Dr. Folck, (937) 376-6101
afolck@centralstate.edu

Central State University, as a multi-national and culturally diverse University, is committed to providing an inclusive, equitable, and diverse place of learning and employment. It is the University's policy to prohibit discrimination and provide equal opportunity to all employees, students and visitors, without regard to their race, sex (including gender identity/expression), sexual orientation, color, religion, ancestry, national origin, age, disability, genetic information, or veteran or military status.